PITTSFIELD SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK PRESENTS A VIRTUAL WATCH PARTY WITH CAST AND CREW OF THEIR 2019 PRODUCTION OF *MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

Virtual watch party of Much Ado About Nothing offers love and excitement around every corner

PITTSFIELD, MA – Join the cast and crew of MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING as we relive the experience of our 2019 production through the magic of the internet. We'll gather virtually to watch the multi-camera HD recording of the show at the First Street Common. The event will be viewable via Live Streaming on Facebook and YouTube. While this event is free to stream, donations are welcomed and encouraged as the company continues its 2021 fundraising campaign.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING is a comedy set in Messina, a small seaside community not too far from now. The show is about friendship, betrayal, and loyalty – to quote director Maizy Broderick Scarpa, "To whom do we owe our loyalty? How do we act when we feel betrayed?...How can we all do better?"

Director Maizy Broderick Scarpa will be joined by actors and creative team members including Brittany Nicholson (Hero, Dogberry), Julie Castagna (Conrade, Friar), Chris Brophy (Leonato, Borachio), Enrico Spada (Artistic Director), and more to be announced.

At intermission and after the show, we'll be live answering all of your questions about the production, our process, and whatever else you're curious about!

All proceeds will go support PSP's free outdoor production of A Midsummer Night's Dream this summer at the First Street Common in Pittsfield. Auditions will be held later this winter/early spring. For any interested in auditioning, please email auditions@pittsfieldshakespeare.org to express interest and be notified directly when we are holding auditions.
